

Most crimes don't get solved, but for different reasons

Most property crimes aren't solved because no suspect is ever identified, while for violent crimes (except murder) a suspect is usually identified but there is not enough evidence to prosecute.

